MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The reorganization of the Medical Department has been attended with good results for the charity.

has been thought wise to increase the Medical Service at each branch by the appointment of assistants to the Resident Physician.

The report of the Medical Board will be presented at this meeting.

Dr. H. J. Garrigues has been added to the Medical Board (Obstetrical Department, at Sixty-first street), and Dr. C. L. Dana has been transferred, at his own request, from the Sixty-first street branch to the Mount Vernon branch department of Nervous and Mental Diseases. Dr. Wendt has been appointed Pathologist at Sixty-first street branch vice W. H. Welch, M.D., who has accepted a chair in the John Hopkins University of Baltimore. The thanks of the Board are due Dr. Welch for valuable services.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

It gives me great pleasure to speak of the success which has attended the administration of the charity for the past year. There is entire harmony in the management, and the work has progressed under most favorable conditions.

The inmates have never had better care, nor has the domestic and internal administration ever been in better condition.

It may not be amiss to briefly advert to this field of our labor.

The Maternity at Sixty-first street is managed in its domestic concerns by the ladies, who devote themselves to this work, with the aid of an excellent matron, a female resident physician, and a female assistant, which may, if necessary, be increased to two female assistants.

The details of the labors of this branch are best shown by the report of the Resident Physician and of the Ladies' Committees, made through the year to this Board, and by their annual reports.

The Mount Vernon branch or home, is in charge, in its domestic and interior management, of a like committee of ladies, under the management of a matron and assistant, a resident and assistant physician.

The reports made monthly to the Medical Board, and to the meetings of the Board of Managers, show the details of this interesting and important work.

The moral and religious character of this work, and the steps taken to exercise a proper influence upon our beneficiaries, have been of a high character, and attended with favorable results. I submit extracts from a letter to myself from Rev. Dr. Woodruff—that estimable man, who through so many years has given his heart to this labor of love, in a way that entitles him to the heartfelt thanks of every friend of this charity, and which fitly illustrates the character of the moral and religious exercises and influences at the Sixty-first street branch :

NEW YORK, July 3d, 1884.

DEAR MR. BELL :

* * * * *

As soon as possible after the original institution at Sixty-first Street and Tenth Avenue was in working order, I was called upon by one of the managers to see if I would be responsible for a regular Service in the Asylum once every month. I was informed that several of the clergy had been spoken to and had signified their willingness to supply the other Sundays. The third Sunday was named as my Sunday, and I held my first Service on the 15th of June, 1873, and have continued to hold regular Services from that time to the present.

To my sorrow, I learned that one and another of the clergy had failed to fulfill their engagement, till, finally, I was the only one left. I undertook, at first, to supply these vacancies, but, having three regular services every Sunday, beside, I found it impossible to do so, in full, and contented myself with having two Services each month at the Asylum. The managers spared no pains to secure clergymen to take the other Sundays, but failed. When the house was opened in Clinton Place, I held a Service once a month, the first being October 19, 1873. After a little, the Board passed a resolution inviting me to hold two (2) Services each month at Sixty-first Street and Clinton Place, which I undertook to do, and continued doing, till Clinton Place was closed. After that I was at Sixty-first Street nearly every Sunday P. M.

At my second Service there, July 12th, 1873, I baptized 8 children by the special request of the mothers, and have baptized more or less children at almost every Service since that time, besides many private baptisms during the week, when children were very sick, and the mothers feared to wait till the next Sunday.

To give point to these baptisms, I have given to each mother a card (see specimen annexed) containing the child's name, place of baptism, birth, names of parent and sponsor; on the back of which is a concise statement of Christian doctrine and duty, fitted to teach when no one but God was near. And it is proper to say that the care with which these cards have been preserved, and the urgency with which a duplicate has been asked for when the original was lost, shows how deep an impression was made, and encourages the hope that the great revealing day will disclose many glorious results from the teachings of the Baptismal Service, kept in mind by the Baptismal Card.

Soon after I began my Services, also, one of the mothers, whose child I had baptized, having lost it by death, asked me to bury it. Accordingly, I held a funeral Service at which every one who could leave the wards was present. I read the Burial Service of the Episcopal Church, and made an address appropriate to the occasion. I was astonished to see only a coffin of unplanned boards, and shocked to learn that it was not considered important to have funeral services as a general thing; that the little ones were taken away by an employee of the city in an ordinary wagon, and buried by the city. It seemed a dreadful and most demoralizing thing to do. These mothers, though erring and sinful, and, perhaps vile, were yet women with all the sensibilities of womanhood and motherhood, and I saw at once that the benevolent objects aimed at by the founding of the Asylum were not only nullified in this way, but productive of the worst evils, for how could they believe that any one cared for their souls when no care was taken of their children after death?

I found an intense desire, on the part of the mothers, that their children should receive a Christian burial and be laid away in a consecrated ground, and promised to gratify it, much to their comfort and peace. In order to give still more effect to this natural feeling, I suggested that each coffin be covered with white muslin fastened with small silver-headed nails; that a nice little dress should be made and that flowers should be provided.

It was touching to see how these simple suggestions moved all hearts, and also to see their readiness and eagerness to assist in carrying them out. Not a burial has taken place without the white coffin, the simple shroud and either natural or artificial flowers. The bodies are taken to "St. Michael's Church Yard," in Astoria, and the expense is borne, equally, by the managers and the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society.

I speak of these two things—Christian Baptism and Christian Burial—because they have had such a marked and salutary influence on the inmates; and these, taken in connection with the regular Sunday services, created in the beginning, and have maintained a healthy, moral and Christian atmosphere in the Asylum, corner of Sixty-first Street. The services on Sunday and at other times are well attended, and the inmates take part in the common prayer with real interest and apparent devotion. The object has always been to make them pleasant and attractive, as well as instructive. At first one of the Managers assisted in the music, but her health failed, and I have since been the organist and leader. The Managers have showed their interest in these services by being present themselves and by bringing their friends, especially when the service was in the afternoon; and they have been encouraged to do this, not only from their interest in the work, but because of the character of those who applied for admission. A close observation of eleven years justifies me in saying that the inmates of the Asylum are not, as many suppose, shameless and vile, but are, on the contrary, with rare, very rare exceptions, of just the opposite stamp. From the beginning, the Asylum has been filled with those who were governesses, teachers, ladies' maids, nurses and up-stairs girls, who have been "sinned against more than sinning." And this is evident not only from the great sense of shame and humiliation manifested, but especially from their general refusal to part with their children for any consideration. If they were from the low and vicious classes they would be only too glad to give their children to anybody, or to leave them to be cared for by anybody so disposed.

It is this feature of the Asylum which makes all efforts in behalf of the inmates so full of hope for the future. It is, indeed, a Christian-like work, and has received and will continue to receive His rich blessing.

The Asylum is singularly fortunate in having a loving, sympathetic and Christian woman as Resident Physician, and a motherly Christian woman as Matron, both of whom use all their personal and official influence to make the Asylum such, in reality, i. e., a safe retreat from the world and a real Christian family!

The facts above stated show that, from the beginning, public Sunday services have been held in the Asylum, corner Sixty-first Street and Tenth Avenue, for the benefit of the inmates; that nearly all the children born there have been publicly baptized there; that those who have died there have received a public Christian burial, with an address on each occasion; that, for the four years last past, a Bible-class has been held nearly every Sunday, and that all the inmates who can leave the wards are gathered in the chapel every morning and evening for family prayers. * * * * *

HOLDING THE MYSTERY OF THE FAITH IN A PURE CONSCIENCE.

The Religious and Devotional Services at Mount Vernon are as follows: Morning and evening devotions are held daily. A religious Service of Song is held once during each week. Preaching 3 p. m. each Sabbath afternoon in the Sanitarium, which is conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coffey, of the Protestant Episcopal Church of East Chester, on the first, third, and fifth Sundays of each month. The second and fourth Sundays, the sermons have been preached by Rev. Mr. Hiscock, of the Baptist Church; Rev. Mr. Clearwater, of the Dutch Reformed Church; Rev. Messrs. Crook and Olmstead, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who have divided the labor among themselves by arrangement. Grace is said at all meals, and funeral services have been conducted by the same clergymen. No inmate has ever been buried without a funeral service.

The thanks of the Board are due the reverend clergymen who have thus participated in and conducted the public services and worship on Sundays, and I should feel greatly pleased if the Board would make some formal and suitable expression of its appreciation of the kindness of heart and Christian co-operation of these reverend gentlemen who have so nobly aided the management in this department and field of its labor.

The management have decided to establish the Kindergarten system of teaching at the Mount Vernon branch, and have employed a competent teacher who has commenced with children of very tender years, and the school is in successful operation.

The system of visitation, by the Managers assigning a given number for each month in the year at each branch, has been successfully instituted, and I herewith submit for your approval the assignment for 1885.

All things for the welfare, comfort, and good of the inmates are carefully considered, and with the practical and systematic aid of the ladies I am not conscious that anything is wanting for the good of the beneficiaries of this charity, in the power of the Board to provide.

FINANCES.

The Treasurer's report will show the total receipts and expenditures for the year.

The needs of the Institution require an early consideration of enlarging our Maternity Wards, and the purchase of lots for the erection of suitable structures, commensurate with the needs of the charity, and the accomplishment of its mission in our city.

FINALLY.

Now that our Board is filled by those who work harmoniously with a common zeal and purpose for the substantial good of the beneficiaries of this Institution, we may confidently look forward to a year of still more successful labors than any in the past, and with thanks to those good friends who have so nobly aided us by their gifts and encouragements, let us with new courage enter upon the labors of another year.

REPORT

OF THE

Medical Board of the N. Y. Infant Asylum.

TO THE BOARD OF MANAGERS:

The medical history of the institution during the past year, though an interesting one, offers no special theme for lengthy comment. With the exception of what threatened to be a severe and extended epidemic of puerperal fever at Sixty-first street, and which by prompt and intelligent measures was speedily suppressed, neither branch has suffered from any of those infectious diseases to which, on account of the nature of the charity, they are particularly liable, and notwithstanding the fact that our sister institutions in this city have been seriously invaded.

Our immunity may be attributed to good fortune, but I think we may reasonably claim credit for extraordinary care and supervision in instances where isolated cases of contagious diseases have appeared.

The many improvements in heating and ventilation which have been effected during the year, and the careful sanitary watch of all arrangements pertaining to the maternity wards, feeding of cows, storage and handling of milk, and the systematic fumigation of all wards and sleeping apartments, has certainly contributed materially to our comfort and health. The Medical Board cannot but express their appreciation of your approval and ready action with respect to all suggestions emanating from them. Very respectfully,

GEORGE B. FOWLER, M. D.,
Secretary.

Despite the utmost vigilance in the care of our maternities it became evident in January that a septic element was lurking in our wards; the first well-marked case occurring in a patient confined December 30th, who developed puerperal peritonitis twelve days after delivery, which proved fatal January 19th. The maternities were immediately vacated, fumigated, different wards used in rapid succession, and the services of an assistant procured in order that new patients should not be infected by those who had been in attendance upon septic cases. All our efforts were, however, unavailing. Septic complication appeared in greater or less severity in nearly every case, three more terminating fatally; and it was deemed advisable to close our wards temporarily, and transfer the pregnant women to our Country Home. Accordingly, nineteen were sent to Mount Vernon for confinement. The entire building was thoroughly disinfected, and wards reopened February 29th, since which date the convalescence of patients has been satisfactory. A system of more rapid rotation has since been rigidly carried out, no ward being used for lying-in purposes longer than ten days.

With the exception of a case of measles, no disease of a contagious nature has appeared among our children.

This developed in January; the little patient was promptly quarantined, thus fortunately preventing what might have proved a serious epidemic.

To the Medical Board I am indebted for their invaluable advice ; and especially to the attending obstetricians for their untiring zeal and assiduous care of the patients.

Respectfully submitted,

KATE PARKER,

Resident Physician.

During the month of February, 1884, there were transferred from the Sixty-first street House twenty-three waiting women, four of whom shortly returned, leaving nineteen whose confinements took place between February 19 and March 31.

The first five (5) cases were confined in the new pavilion known as the “Hospital” (and it is worthy of remark, in this connection, that these cases were attended with elevation of temperature and other symptoms of septic infection).

The remaining confinements occurred in the upper ward of cottage four; convalescence in each case being established without interruption.

With the exception of varicella and purulent conjunctivitis, which assumed an epidemic form, this branch has been free from contagious diseases. During May cases of varicella appeared at frequent intervals, and always in wards in the Main House. These wards were fumigated early in June, after the formula prescribed by Dr. A. N. Bell, Sanitarian to the Institution, by burning three pounds of sulphur to each 1,000 cubic feet of space in each ward. No case of varicella has since appeared.

An infant received May 9 developed next day pyrexia, accompanied by eruption on skin, resembling measles.

Quarantine regulations were immediately established and maintained for three weeks. No similar case has been noticed.

Cases of purulent conjunctivitis appeared among the infants and younger children during the first week in September, and soon became general. Dr. Mittendorf was summoned and responded in person. He prescribed forms of treatment, and ascribed the cause of the affection to atmospheric influences. The course and duration of the epidemic were also predicted by Dr. Mittendorf, which prediction was closely fulfilled, as events proved, the severity of the epidemic reaching a maximum about the middle of October, and declining to complete disappearance early in December.

A course of fumigation was begun in the first week of October, separating at the same time those having conjunctivitis from those not so affected, the former class being placed in the hospital, the latter returned to the purified wards.

As will be evident, from an inspection of the mortuary report, the first seventy days of the year are without a death.

Of those occurring up to May 1, '84, on which date my service as resident physician began, there are none, with the exception of enteritis, that may not have been caused by seasonal or individual influences. It was not determined by Drs. Warner and Coggeshall, resident and assistant, that the enteritis was due to any unusual exciting cause.

Of the following twenty-three all but seven resulted from catarrhal inflammation involving either the respiratory or gastro-intestinal mucous membrane.

In a large measure, seasonal influences, particularly sudden changes in the temperature, or degree of moisture in the air, may be stated as being active in producing these diseases.

On every occasion requiring it, prompt assistance has been rendered by the gentlemen constituting the Board of Visiting and Consulting Physicians to this branch.

Dr. A. T. Weston was appointed Assistant Physician at this branch June 1, 1884, and has been faithful in the discharge of his duties since that date, rendering me most valuable assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

S. AUSTIN DAVIS, M D.,

Resident Physician.

"HOUSE OF MATERNITY AND LYING-IN DEPARTMENT,"
Sixty-first Street and Tenth Avenue, New York City.

ANNUAL REPORT OF
THE HOUSE COMMITTEE
OF THE
House of Reception and Lying-in Department
OF THE
NEW YORK INFANT ASYLUM
SIXTY-FIRST STREET AND TENTH AVENUE.

TO THE BOARD OF MANAGERS:

The careful and judicious administration of the Maternity and Lying-in Department of such an Institution as the New York Infant Asylum, demands more of time, care and patient endeavor than the ladies who have it in charge have at their command, consistent with other duties and responsibilities.

To labor in such a work as this field is to learn to greatly prize and dearly love it. It is only those who misunderstand it who could hesitate to encourage it.

It is not alone the growing and rapidly-advancing march of our city that makes it incumbent on you now to prepare for the exigencies of the near future, but it is no longer to be ignored that our facilities at the Maternity are not adequate for even our present needs. For two months in the past year our doors have been closed for want of suitable accommodations for those applying, notwithstanding which our total of inmates sheltered has steadily advanced, nearly doubling in the last six years.

This charity is doing noble work. Its mission is sacred, silent, secret, in its effects, and none can know till the all-revealing day a tithe of the good it has wrought. Let me submit one letter from many of the same kind received from inmates, who have received its shelter and protection :

MY DEAR FRIEND:

Five years ago I was the most unhappy person in existence, and when God in his great mercy sent you to me I never expected to be happy again.

To-day I am as happy as it is possible for any human being to be, for he has sent me a good man who has asked me to be his wife, a man whom I love with my whole heart, and I can ask no greater happiness than this, and when we are made one it will be the effort of my life to be as true to him as it is possible for a woman to be to the man whom she loves. I feel that I must tell you this good news, and feel safe in saying that I know you will be glad to hear this. I am just beginning to live again; my past life seems like some terrible dream to me.

My family are all pleased with my choice, and I am so strangely happy. I would like to hear from you when you have leisure. Do you think I do right in accepting this great happiness? He knows the past, all of it, and takes me as I am.

I hope you are in good health. My dear friend, let me thank you again for all your many kindnesses to me. They shall never be forgotten by me.

It seems almost incredible when I look back on the past and see how safely God has brought me through all my troubles into a state of happiness, and now God bless you is the prayer of

* * *

Two things are uppermost in my mind as to the future of this Institution. The first I have alluded to, namely, the providing more room and facilities in this branch, and the second, how best to enlist a larger number of philanthropic women in this city in its beneficent ministrations of mercy. Both are in my judgment of equal importance for your early consideration.

The bi-monthly reports made to you during the year furnish you with details of our household not necessary to be reviewed here.

No change has been made with the staff of officers, excepting the addition of an assistant physician, which has been of value to us.

The labors of the house are performed as ever by the inmates, and a very large number of garments made—in all 4,299. We are also indebted to the ladies' committees for 84 sheets, 50 pillow cases and 34 babies slips.

Mr. C. T. Woodruff has been untiring in his ministerial attendance, for which he is entitled to your thanks.

Very respectfully submitted,

HELENE S. BELL,
Chairman House Committee.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Ladies' Committee of the Mount Vernon Home.

Another year brings us again face to face with the old, old story of woman's faith betrayed, her trust dishonored, and with the problem of how these wrongs shall be met and how the outcast shall be rescued from entire wreck.

Next, the most blessed work of all, what shall be done with the little souls on whom comes the life-long burden of inherited sin and shame.

The needs keep pace with the work, and all the humanity within us cries out afresh, when these helpless hands are stretched out, and these young eyes look into ours, which are, alas! saddened as we look forward with troubled misgivings to their future life.

The present prosperity of the Mount Vernon Asylum is entitled to more than a simple statement of every-day fact and a dry array of figures.

Within its walls, sheltered from the fearful retribution that follows sin, are beating hearts that are daily responding more and more to the influences of quiet order and the gentle morality that are the breath of the place, and these wayward ones, who, perhaps, have never known the comfort of regular living, of wholesome food, of soft words and patient forbearance, are daily receiving lessons in a new language, and to them an unknown tongue—perhaps awakening a desire for a better life and a strength to keep them from again falling victims by the way.

In going through the sunny wards and studying the faces of the inmates, each tells its own sad story, and the earnest eye cannot fail to read the secret history that has brought the outcast to seek a refuge here. Even here, where a common misfortune has brought all to one level, there are degrees and shadings, as in all groupings, where human beings are thrown together in one community. The modest girl still blushes as she bends over her innocent babe; the bright face yet looks with a hopeful gaze into the future; there is the pitiful look of despair and the brazen glance from a hardened heart. All are here, and as you look from mother to child you can only say, "may God pity where man has forgotten."

The possibilities contained in a tiny acorn have passed into a proverb, but the miracle is yearly repeated, and the little seed becomes the giant tree—a shelter for the homeless birds of the air and the weary pilgrim of the soil.

So the sunlight of God has rested on our Home, and though clouds have gathered over our heads, the storms have unharmed us, for our roots are planted deep. And if in our work some poor crushed hope is revived, some falling feet lifted from despair, some bruised heart healed, we will take heart of grace and urge forward our labors in this work.

We have also great encouragement in the religious interest developing in the Asylum. The women gladly attend the daily prayers, and their faces glow with a new-found pleasure as they join in the evening service of song and praise.

The services of the clergymen—Rev. C. Clearwater, Rev. Dr. Hiscox, Rev. George Crook, Rev. Mr. Coffey and Rev. Mr. Olmsted—we again gratefully acknowledge, and we trust they will have an ever present reward in their labor of love.

There has also been a Kindergarten school established for the little children, and the efficiency of their teacher will prepare them somewhat for the homes to which they may be sent.

To those of our friends who have helped in making a holiday season of Thanksgiving and Christmas, we return our grateful thanks, and only wish all could have seen the happy and comfortable faces of our little ones as they enjoyed the unwonted festivals.

We are also gratefully indebted for clothing given. The inmates have themselves made and repaired over six thousand garments.

Another cottage has been added to our buildings, fitted with every sanitary improvement.

The resignation of our matron, who had been with us nine years, left a blank difficult to fill. But we have been fortunate in securing our present matron, who is fulfilling her duties in a faithful and Christian spirit.

It is a pretty conceit of the poet, that centuries ago the fern leaf grew in a valley, hidden by grass and moss, and waving in the low wind, followed the sunbeams that darted about it. Was the tiny plant useless, lost? The thoughtful man, searching nature's secret from a fissure in the rock, found a stone on which there ran fairy pencilings—a quaint design :

“Leafage, veining, flowers clear and fine,
And the fern's life lay in every line;
So I think God hides some lives away,
Sweetly to surprise us, the last day.”

MARTHA A. BATES,
Chairman Home Committee.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Committee on Adoption of the New York Infant Asylum,

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING DEC. 31, 1884.

TO THE BOARD OF MANAGERS
N. Y. INFANT ASYLUM:

GENTLEMEN : The Committee on Adoption begs leave to report, that during the year 1884 there were thirty-two (32) children adopted by the Committee, in good homes, we trust. One of the children has been returned to the Institution owing to the insanity of its adopted father.

The Committee makes a thorough investigation into all applications for the adoption of children, and will not adopt a child out unless entirely satisfied that the applicants are the proper parties to care for a child and give it a good home.

The Committee is in receipt of letters of the most satisfactory nature from those who have adopted children.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. CHALMERS,
Secretary Adoption Committee.

AN ACT To Incorporate the New York Infant Asylum.

[Passed March 11, 1865, and amended April 18, 1872, and April 2, 1877.]

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Edward Delafield, M.D., Charles Ely, Earl Douglas, Ebenezer P. Rogers, D.D., Henry E. Montgomery, D.D., Richard F. Carman, Stephen Smith, M.D., John David Wolfe, James F. DePeyster, Willard Parker, M.D., George Jones, Joel Foster, M.D., William C. Prime and their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of the New York Infant Asylum, and by that name shall have and possess all the powers and privileges, and be subject to the provisions and restrictions prescribed and specified in title three, chapter eighteen, part one of the Revised Statutes, and shall have power to take real and personal estate by gift, devise, demise, bequest or purchase; but such real estate shall not exceed the yearly value of twenty thousand dollars, nor shall the property or income of such corporation be applied or appropriated to any purpose other than as specified in this act.

§ 2. The objects of said corporation are to receive and take charge of foundlings and other infant children of the age of two years and under, which may be entrusted to their charge as hereinafter specified, and to provide for their support, and moral, physical, intellectual and industrial education; also to provide such lying-in wards and methods of care and guidance as shall tend to prevent the maternal abandonment of homeless infants, and diminish the moral dangers and personal sufferings to which homeless mothers are exposed.

§ 3. The property, business and affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of at least seventeen members, and the persons named in the first section of this act, together with the ex-officio members hereinafter named, shall constitute the first board of managers. All vacancies which may happen in the board, excepting of ex-officio members, shall be filled by the board at an election to be held for that purpose under such regulations as may be prescribed in the by-laws of the corporation. The members constituting the board of managers may be, at any time, increased by vote of the board at a meeting duly called for that purpose; provided, however, that said board shall not be increased so as to consist of more than thirty members.

The Mayor of the City of New York, the President of the Board of Supervisors of the city and county, the President of the Board of Commissioners of Public Charities and Corrections of said City and County of New York, and the President of the Board of Police, for the time being, shall be ex-officio managers of the said corporation.

§ 4. At all meetings of the managers five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business, but no purchase, sale or other disposition of real estate, nor appointment or removal of any officer of the corporation, nor election to fill a vacancy in the board, nor any contract involving an expenditure of more than five hundred dollars shall be made, nor shall the number constituting the board of managers be increased, nor any by-law be adopted, amended or appealed, without the presence of a majority of the managers.

§ 5. The said corporation shall have the power to procure or erect and maintain, either within the City of New York, or in some other suitable and convenient place within the State of New York, and distant not more than thirty miles from the City of New York, a suitable building or buildings for an asylum for such children as may be entrusted to and received by them agreeably to the provisions of this act; and shall have power also to procure or erect and maintain, within the City of New York, a house of reception where such children may be first received and temporarily accommodated. Whenever any child shall be received by the said corporation in such house of reception, under the provisions of section eight of this act, it shall not be lawful for said corporation, within the period of thirty days next succeeding, to place such child in their asylum; but such child shall remain in said house of reception for said period of thirty days, unless sooner discharged and removed agreeably to the provisions of this act.

§ 6. The said corporation may receive and take under its care and management :

(1.) Children of the age of two years, or under, found in the City of New York abandoned or deserted, as hereinafter specified.

(2.) Children of like age, born out of wedlock, who, by consent in writing of the mother, may be entrusted to said corporation.

(3.) Children of like age, whose father or whose mother is dead, and whose surviving parent is, for any cause, unable to maintain them, and who, by consent in writing of such surviving parent, may be entrusted to said corporation.

(4.) Children of like age, whose parents are, from any cause, unable to maintain them, and who, by consent in writing of the father, or, in case the father shall have been legally declared an habitual drunkard, or a lunatic, or shall be imprisoned on conviction of crime, or shall have been legally declared to have abandoned his family, then, by the consent in writing of the mother, may be entrusted to said corporation.

(5.) Children of like age, having no parent living, and who, by consent in writing of their guardian, or nearest relative of full age, may be entrusted to said corporation.

(6.) Children of like age, who may be transferred and entrusted to said corporation by the Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction of the City and County of New York.

§ 7. Children entrusted to said corporation by the voluntary act of their parents, guardian or nearest relations, as hereinbefore provided, shall be deemed to be in the lawful charge and custody of said corporation. Such entrusting shall be made and evidenced by an instrument in writing, in form substantially as follows, viz.: I, A. B. (father, mother, guardian or nearest relative, as the case may be), of a (male or female, as the case may be) infant child; aged _____, named _____ (or not named, as the case may be), born at _____, do hereby surrender, and entrust to the New York Infant Asylum, for the period of _____ years, the entire management and control of such child, and do hereby assign to and invest said corporation with the same powers and control over said child as those of which I am possessed.

§ 8. Whenever any child of the age of two years, or under, shall be found on any street, avenue, highway, lane, alley, public place, dock, pier, vacant lot or yard, or in any vacant or uninhabited room, house, tenement, shed or building of any kind, in the City of New York, abandoned or deserted, it shall be lawful for any policeman or other person so finding such child to take, or cause the same to be taken, to the house of reception that may be provided by said corporation in the City of New York, and place such child in the custody of such corporation, thereupon making and subscribing, in a register to be kept for that purpose in said house of reception by said corporation, an entry in writing describing such child as nearly as may be, and setting forth with particularity the time and place, when and where, with the name and residence of the person by whom such child was so found abandoned or deserted.

§ 9. The said corporation shall immediately thereupon cause a notice, substantially in the following form, with the blanks properly filled and subscribed by the superintendent of the said house of reception, to be furnished to the Metropolitan Police Commissioners, who shall cause the same to be posted in each of the police station houses in said city, viz.:

NOTICE.—This is to certify that a child of about the age of _____, hair _____, eyes _____, color _____, was, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, found in the City of New York abandoned or deserted, and has been placed in the custody of the New York Infant Asylum, and, unless reclaimed, according to law, within thirty days, such child will remain in the charge and custody of said corporation.

Dated _____, 18____, _____, Superintendent.

§ 10. If, within said period of thirty days after such notice shall have been so posted, any person claiming to be the parent or lawful guardian of such child shall make oath thereof before some magistrate of the City of New York, such magistrate shall thereupon issue a summons to said corporation to appear before him, at a time and place to be specified, not less than two nor more than four days from the service thereof, to attend the hearing of said claim for such child, and with said summons shall be served a copy of the affidavit so made before said magistrate. Upon the hearing, if the claimant shall establish by competent testimony, to the satisfaction of the magistrate, that such claimant is the parent or lawful guardian of such child, such magistrate shall thereupon make an order for the delivery of such child to such claimant. And the said claimant may thereupon remove the said child from the custody of the said corporation; provided, however, that if it shall satisfactorily appear to such magistrate that such claimant, from habitual drunkenness, or other vicious or depraved habits or mode of life, or from indigence or lunacy, or other cause, is an unfit or improper person to have the care and custody of such child, he shall thereupon dismiss the said claim, and remand such child to the care and custody of said corporation. And in case upon the hearing the claimant shall fail to establish by competent testimony, to the satisfaction of the magistrate, that such claimant is the parent or lawful guardian of such child, then such magistrate shall thereupon dismiss the claim, and remand the child to the care and custody of said corporation.

§ 11. In case no such claim shall be made within said period of thirty days, or, being made within that period, shall be dismissed by the magistrate, then such child shall remain and be deemed to be in the lawful care and custody of the said corporation, if a female, until the age of eighteen years, and if a male until the age of twenty-one years, unless sooner discharged by said corporation, as hereinafter provided.

§ 12. If at any time within three years after any child so found abandoned or deserted as aforesaid shall have been entrusted to the custody of said corporation, as above provided, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Board of Managers, or any Justice of the Supreme Court or County Judge, that such child was for any cause wrongfully or improvidently so entrusted, the said board shall thereupon, on the application of the parents or guardian of said child, discharge the said child, and restore it to such parents or guardian. And in case at any time after such abandoned or deserted child shall have been entrusted to said corporation it shall appear to the Board of Managers, having due regard to the welfare of such child and the purpose of said corporation, expedient or proper to discharge such child, the said Board of Managers may, in their discretion, thereupon discharge such child, and restore it to its parents, guardian or other protector on such reasonable terms and conditions as the said board may deem right and proper.

§ 13. Whenever any child, being in the custody of the said corporation, shall, by the commission of any crime, or by confirmed evil habits, have become so degraded or debased as, in the opinion of the Board of Managers, to be an improper subject for the care and management of said corporation, the said corporation shall have the power to deliver such child into the custody of some magistrate or other competent authority of the City and County of New York to be disposed of in due course of law.

§ 14. The said corporation shall have the power, when the children in their care shall respectively attain a proper age, to procure the adoption of suitable foster-parents of such children as may properly be so adopted out, to place them at suitable employments, and cause them to be instructed in suitable branches of knowledge, and at discretion to bind out or indenture such children, when of suitable ages, as clerks, apprentices or servants, to some profession, trade or employment, for such time or period as they may deem proper, not exceeding, however, in the case of girls, to the age of eighteen, and in the case of boys, to the age of twenty-one years; provided, however, that in the case of children voluntarily entrusted to said corporation by their parents, guardians or nearest relatives, as hereinbefore provided, the said corporation shall not bind out or indenture any such child for a period beyond the time for which such children have been entrusted to said corporation.

§ 15. No person to whom any child shall have been bound to service under the provisions of this act, or his executors, administrators or assigns, shall assign or transfer the indenture or contract of service to any other person, nor let or hire out for any period the services of such child, without the consent in writing of said corporation; and upon granting any such consent the said corporation may prescribe and impose any terms and conditions they may deem reasonable and proper; and every such assignment, when duly made with consent as aforesaid, shall have the effect to transfer to and vest in the assignee all the rights of the original master; and such assignee shall be subject to all the duties and obligations of such original master.

§ 16. In case of the death of any master to whom any child shall have been bound to service under the provisions of this act, or in case of the death of the assignee of any such master, then such death shall have the effect to cancel and annul the indenture or contract of service; and thereupon the said corporation shall resume the charge and management of such child, and have the same power and authority with regard to it as before the indenture or contract of service was made.

§ 17. Any indenture or contract of service by which any child shall have been bound out under the provisions of this act, may, by the mutual consent of the master or the assignee and the said corporation, be cancelled and annulled upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, and thereupon the said corporation shall resume the charge and management of such child, and have the same power and authority with regard to it as before the indenture or contract of service was made.

§ 18. If any master or assignee shall be guilty of any cruelty or misusage towards any child so bound out to service under the provisions of this act, or shall refuse or neglect to furnish and provide proper food and clothing to such child, or shall commit any other breach or violation of the terms of the indenture or contract of service under which such child is held, such child, or any person in its behalf, may make complaint thereof to the board of managers of the said corporation, or to a justice of the Supreme Court, or to some justice of the peace of the county where such child is held to service, or to the mayor, recorder or an alderman, or any other magistrate of any city where such child is so held to service, who shall thereupon summon the said master or assignee to appear before them or him, and shall examine into, hear and determine such complaint; and if, upon such hearing, the said complaint shall appear to be well founded, they or he shall, by certificate in writing, discharge such child from the obligation of service, and restore such child to the charge and custody of said corporation, and with the like power as before the said indenture or contract of service was made; and the said master or assignee shall also be liable to the said corporation, in a civil action, for the breach of the agreement.

§ 19. The board of managers of the said corporation shall be the guardian of every child bound out or held for service under the provisions of this act, and shall see that the terms of the contract be faithfully performed by the master or assignee, and that such child is properly treated. And they shall inquire into the treatment of such child and redress any grievance in manner prescribed by law.

§ 20. Every master or assignee to whom any child shall be bound or held to service under the provisions of this act, shall, at least once in every six months during such term of service, report in writing to the board of managers of the said corporation, the conduct or behavior of such child, and whether such child is still living under the care of the person to whom such child was originally bound, and if not, where and with whom such child is living. And all indentures and contracts of service made under this act, shall in terms provide for such report being made.

§ 21. All damages that may be recovered and received by said corporation of any master or assignee for the breach or violation of the indenture or contract of service by which any child shall be bound out under the provisions of this act, after deducting therefrom the necessary expenses of recovering and collecting the same, shall be held by the said corporation in trust for, and paid over to, said child ; if a female, at the age of eighteen years, and if a male, at the age of twenty-one years ; provided, however, that if such child shall die before attaining such age, the said damages shall revert and belong to the said corporation.

It is further provided, that whenever any homeless or needy mother has received care and attendance in the lying-in wards of the New York Infant Asylum, the managers of said asylum shall be entitled to receive, and shall receive, from the county treasurer, as hereinbefore provided, the sum of twenty-five dollars for said care and obstetric attendance, and whenever any mother thus domiciled and attended at the birth of her child, and whenever any other homeless or needy mother, with a nursing infant, resides at the asylum, by the request of its officers, and wet-nurses her own infant, the managers of said institution shall be entitled to receive, and shall receive, from the County Treasurer, the sum of eighteen dollars per month, and proportionally for any fraction of a month, for each mother so remaining under their charge in said asylum, provided such residence shall exceed the period of two months, to be paid, as hereinbefore provided, in monthly, quarterly, or annual payments, as said managers may request ; but the managers of the said institution shall not be entitled to receive the said monthly allowance for a longer period than for one year for any mother so remaining.

§ 24. Schools may be established and maintained by the said corporation, and shall participate in the distribution of the Common School fund in the same manner and degree as the common schools of the City and County of New York, and the amount so distributed shall be paid to the board of managers of said corporation.
